Surfcoast Anglican Parish

16 April 2023

Weeping may last for a night.

Weeping may last for a thousand nights.

But joy comes in the morning.

That morning we went to our beloved teacher's tomb.

We went to anoint his body. We carried oil and cloths.

We came to the tomb in sorrow, heads bowed low.

But hope does not die so easily.

It flickers inside, buried somewhere deep.

Hope grows, blossoms like a rose, even through stone,

even in hearts frozen by grief.

When we arrived at the place where he lay

We dropped all that we carried, in wonder, in fear,

to see the tomb laid open, and our beloved gone.

Do not weep, said the man.

This morning we rejoice. Love lives. Hope lives.

Jesus is not here, he said. Come and see. He is risen.

Our beloved is risen. Our hope is risen.

Can it be? Can it be?

— Molly Housh Gordon, "At the Tomb" from Holy Week Triptych

Surfcoast Parish acknowledges the Wadawurrung community as the traditional owners of the land on which we worship. We pay our respect to their elders past, present and emerging.

Parish Mission (our purpose)

Surfcoast Anglican Parish exists to:

- nurture people's relationship with God;
- encourage people by example to live by the teachings of Jesus;
- engage and work with the broader community.

Parish Vision (our aspiration)

An enthusiastic and welcoming Church valued for its contribution to the wellbeing of the Surf Coast community; and for providing ways for people to explore their spirituality.
